Handling Aright The Word Of Truth

Don Hatch

Who has not faced problems wanting and needing help to develop a solution, to know the answer which best suites the circumstances? The evidence can be encountered in reviewing countless lives of the ancients. Affirming, emphasizing, explaining that God is the answer and in His book the assurance is boldly manifested and constitutes the basics of dealing with issues. Affirmation and examples insert answers to crucial questions of life, enabling mankind to maintain dignity and honor. Books of the Bible answer crucial questions with thoughtful remarks and dialog.

The Bible glorifies God and contributes through explanations information about truth. Is there absolute truth? Reality is accurate describing and presenting a means to ascertain what truth is. To say truth is absolute means that the facts, when presented, are in accord with reality or have fidelity to standards and ideals which are beyond question. Specifically the Bible teaches the same things, just exactly as they were taught when the writing of it was complete. The fact that various men have drawn differing (sometimes contradictory) conclusions as to what the Bible teaches does not change one thing taught centuries before any of these men lived. The Bible says Jesus Christ was born of a virgin. The modernists have denied this, but it does not change the teachings of the Bible. If one is to use the Bible for counsel, concerning weighty questions it must be believed. It has withstood the test of time wherein countless other sources have come to an untimely end.

It is possible for mankind to know truth and that truth will set them free (Jn 8:32). Bible truth is attainable and possible for mankind to know and use in decision making. Living a Christian life is possible and necessary. Becoming a Christian embraces a series of Bible truths which amend the life of a believer. Knowing what sin is and that an individual can discern right from wrong is part of the conversion of an alien to a faithfully obedient believer (Heb 5:11-14). Making decisions to be a Christian takes consideration of what the law of sin and death implies and how the law of the Spirit sets one free from sin. Each spiritual decision made by an individual assures one that God will supply principles to practice making righteous and holy choices. God provides help in solving the problems which confront a person desiring to live a Christian life (Jas 1:1-25). The Bible is not as difficult to understand as some would make it out to be. First we must take easier passages and understand them. Next we will compound what we have learned and move to the more difficult passages. Each step of the Christian's life advances the ability to solve problems. It is often insisted that certain people know more than God because they change God's ways which are clearly set forth. No one can make decisions about the Christian walk if the rules keep changing.

Guidance for the Christian life does not come by "feelings". Atheists and agnostics each claim they know that there is no God and no one can know Him. Some under the influence of "romantic philosophy" stress feelings more than valid reasoning and evidence claiming God does not exist. If God does not exist, then we cannot know that the Bible is His word. If we cannot know that the Bible is His word, then we cannot know that Jesus Christ is the Son of God and has been raised from the dead. Moreover, our faith would be in vain (1 Cor 15:12-17). On the day the church began Peter assured the believers that they could know the truth of the gospel (Acts 2:22-26). Any feeling which teaches contrary to the Bible is invalid. The Bible is the word of God and has been proven faithful in all cases. It is a book which can be trusted to guide us in all matters great and small. The proper role of logic (principles of valid reasoning) must be used to know and understand the Bible. No one can become a Christian unless there is an understanding of the truth of the gospel of salvation. The plan of salvation must be understood before it can be obeyed. The Bible has supportive information which concludes that it is reasonable to use it for guidance in a Christian's life. No one can understand the Bible without proper use of principles of valid reasoning. The revolt against reason inclines its practitioners toward the unrealistic.

It comes as no surprise that there are forces which are stripping the Bible of its value to guide the Christian. The first century brethren were accosted, but overcame and gave witness that the Bible is a unique volume inspired by God (2 Tim 3:16, 17). God's word has been sufficient through the ages to answer each and every problem. Assuredly prayerful, diligent study of the Holy Writ will guide us to do that which is right, honorable and faithful. All false teachings will be overcome. Our personal study, Bible class, lectureships, gospel meetings and participating in worship lead us to "give diligence to present thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, handling aright the word of truth" (2 Tim 2:15).

FAMILY CARE
A Message from Our Shepherds

This congregation has a long tradition of helping preaching students and their families with financial aid. This year has been no exception. We began in January by helping Roy and Tricia Connor of the Northwest Church of Christ. Our Bro. Robert Dodson highly recommended them for the Brown Trail School of Preaching. As you can see from their report cards below, they are at the top of their classes. We pray that they will continue to glorify God throughout their lives. Roy wrote:

Dear Brethren,

Another quarter has come to an end, and I just finished a week off from school. Really anxious to get back to this quarter as I have really been looking forward to this quarter in particular due to the classes lined up for this term. This quarter we will be taking: Scheme of Redemption, Prison Epistles, Galatians, Life and Teachings of Christ, New Testament Overview, The Life and Work of a Preacher, Homiletics III, and Greek II. I am so thankful for your support that we have the opportunity to devote our time to the study of God's Word. This truly is an amazing work that you help so generously, and I hope you understand what your support really does for my family. I have been teaching the high school class at the Crandall congregation and what a blessing it has been to be able to get my feet wet and teach. The Brown Trail School of Preaching and faithful Christians like you have had a life changing effect on our whole life.

These things command and teach. Let no man despise thy youth; but be thou an ensample to them that believe, in word, in manner of life, in love, in faith, in purity. Till I come, give heed to reading, to exhortation, to teaching. Neglect not the gift that is in thee, which was given thee by prophecy, with the laying on of the hands of the presbytery. Be diligent in these things; give thyself wholly to them; that thy progress may be manifest unto all. Take heed to thyself, and to thy teaching. Continue in these things; for in doing this thou shalt save both thyself and them that hear thee" (1 Tim 4:11-16).

Because Of Christ I Can

Gospel Meeting

October 20-23, 2013

Meet our preacher for this year's meeting

Cory Collins preaches with the Keller Church of Christ in Keller, Texas. A native of Nashville, Tennessee, he has a bachelor's degree in Bible, with a minor in biblical languages, from Lipscomb University. He obtained the Master of Arts in Religion from Westminster Theological Seminary in Philadelphia. In the early 1980s he worked in a mission program in Tower One in the World Trade Center in New York City, teaching English and Bible to immigrants from 25 countries. During that time he also served with the Manhattan Church of Christ. In addition to preaching, he has served as Dean of Students and instructor in Bible at Heritage Christian University in Florence, Alabama. He has been active in preaching and missions in several states, as well as Australia, Canada, Mexico, Scotland, and South Africa. His wife Tanya formerly taught third grade at Mars Hill Bible School, where she was named "Teacher of the Year." They have been married since 1977 and have two children.
