THE GOSPEL PLAN OF SALVATION

Hear - Romans 10:17
Believe - John 8:24
Repent - Acts 17:30
Confess - Romans 10:10
Be Baptized - Acts 22:16
Saved - in Christ (Galatians 3:27)

Bro. Heath Stapleton brought us two great lessons of God’s word in a forceful manner. I hope they stirred our hearts to stay faithful in worshipping God Almighty. The sermon encouraged all of us to think more seriously about our worship to God in spirit and in truth. In olden times, God always kept a limited barrier between He and man. The sacrifice that Jesus willingly gave, opened the door to a new closeness to God, experienced only by those who are obedient to Christ and are willing to live accordingly to His promises.

Hebrews 10:22-24 NKJV

²² let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience and our bodies washed with pure water. ²³ Let us hold fast the confession of our hope without wavering, for He who promised is faithful. ²⁴ And let us consider one another in order to stir up love and good works.

The new covenant brings confidence (Heb. 10:19-25) (Bridgeway Bible Commentary)

Access to God’s presence was limited under the old covenant. Only the high priest could pass through the curtain that closed the entrance to the Most Holy Place, and then only at certain times and under strict conditions. But now that Christ, by his death, has atoned for sin and opened the way to God, all God’s people are able to come before him. They can do so confidently, yet with the reverence and purity that the old ceremonies symbolized (19-22). To fight against the tendency to lose heart, they must trust firmly in God’s promises, help each other in everyday affairs, and meet regularly to encourage each other in the faith (23-25).

Hebrews 10:25 NKJV

²⁵ not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as is the manner of some, but exhorting one another, and so much the more as you see the Day approaching.

The writer of the book of Hebrews tells us not to miss worship services. Let us draw near to God while we have the opportunity.
